From the Amst. Gaz. Jul. 18. & Leid. Gaz. Jul. 24.

Rome, July 5.

THE 24th of last Month, the Dutchess of Zagarola Rospigliosi, returning home from a Church in her Coach, met the Queen Dowager of Poland's Coaches; which accidentally occasioning a stop, the Queen Dowager's Servants fell upon the Dutchess's Coachman, beat him, and wounded him in the Face; the Governour of the City being made acquainted with it, has thought fit to interpose his good Offices to make up this Matter, lest further Mischief should ensue upon it. The Duke of Modena has newly had a long Audience of the Pope, about the Differences between him and the two Crowns; which are not like to be soon accommodated. The 30th the Cardinal de Fourbin had an Audience of his Holiness touching the Affair of the Expulsion of the Imperialists out of the Ferrareze, which Audience lasted two Hours, and the Pope express'd great Resentment that the Troops of the King of France, the Cardinal's Master, should return into the Ferrareze, and dislodge his Holiness's Troops from the Posts they took Possession of upon the Imperialists retiring out of them. His Eminency urg'd several Arguments to pacifie the Pope, and among the rest, 'tis said, represented to him, that the Grand Prior of France had done him an important piece of Service on that Occasion, seeing that the Imperialists being retir'd towards the Trentin, his Holiness might disarm without Fear, and save the Charge of 70000 Crowns a Month which he is oblig'd to be at to keep on Foot the Troops he has rais'd to guard the Ecclesiastical Territories.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated July 24.

Bologne, July 8. The 29th of last Month, Cardinal Dada Legate of this Province stood Godfather in this City to the second Son of the Duke of Modena, as Proxy for the Pope. Count Paulucci return'd to Ferrara, some days ago, with the Pope's Troops that he commands. The Trick he put upon the Imperialists that were lately in the Ferrareze, is the common subject of Discourse here; and several Pasquinades upon it have been found affix'd on the Gates of his Palace. 'Tis reported likewise; that General Visconti has sent him word, that he will seek a Time and Place to take Revenge upon him, for holding Intelligence under-hand with the French; and that he will have satisfaction of him, for the Baggage himself and another German General Officer lost at Figarolo, to the Value of about 12000 Crowns.

From the Leid. Gaz. Jul. 24. & Rot. Gaz. Jul. 28.

Ratisbon, July 17. The 11th of this Month the Bavarian Troops that were garrison'd in this Town quitted it intirely; and immediately the Burghers took Possession of the Stone Bridge and the Gates; the same day the Ministers of the Electors of Mentz and Bavaria exchange'd the Treaty concluded by the last mention'd Elector with the Diet for the Neutrality of this Town. Our Magistrates have order'd Drums to beat up for raising 300 Men; to keep constant Guard at our Gates and the Stone Bridge. And yesterday it was resolv'd in the Colleges, that all French and Bavarian Commissaries should be order'd to depart this Place, and not be suffer'd to buy up any Provisions, lest it should cause a Scarcity here.

Yarmouth, July 28. This day about Noon sail'd out of these Roads the light Fleet of about 300 Sail without Convoy to the Northward, and left here the Queenborough Man of War; and with the said light Fleet sail'd Her Majesty's Ship the Chatham Prize Captain Pepys Commander bound for Humber. And this Evening came into our Roads Rear Admiral Whetstone with his Squadron of Men of War.

Harwich, July 29. Yesterday the Dunwich Man of War with all the light Colliers that were here, sail'd to the Northward. This Morning the Chester Man of War came to an Anchor in Hofely-Bay.

London, July 31. Yesterday arriv'd an Express from Yarmouth, which we are inform'd brought an Account, that Rear Admiral Whetstone with his Squadron meeting a Swedish Man of War of 50 Guns and 9 Merchant Ships under her Convoy, order'd a Gun to be fir'd to warn the Swede to strike to Her Majesty's Ships; the Swede sent his Long-Boat to the Admiral to tell him he was resolv'd not to strike; whereupon the Admiral order'd a second Gun to be fir'd, which the Swede answer'd with a Broad-side; a Fight ensued, and after a sharp Dispute, in which which the Swede suffer'd very much, and on our side about 70 Men were lost, the Swedish Man of War was taken, as also the Merchantmen; and are brought into Yarmouth.
